peared on the scene. Then he made his baneful presence known by engaging kidnappers to wayley children, irrespective of ser, who escaped detection by being transformed into sheep by means of a charm placed on their heads, until being taken to a place of safety far away from the prying eyes of the people, a single draught of water was sufficient to make the shorp resume their natural forms and become children once more. But sooner or later retribution must come. It came in this instance one day in the 4th moon. of last year (May, 1892.) when nine sheep that had been stolen by a party of four kidnappers in the city of An Fu, Hunan, broke the spell, unknown. to their captors, by drinking some water. The children's tale was soon told; but afraid that the magistrate of the town, by accepting bribes from the men, would let them go, the people of An Fu took vengeance into their own hands by decapitating the four kidnippers and chopping their bodies into mincement. But it was not until they had sprinkled the blood of a black dog. on the kidneppers' necks that they succeeded at last in beheading them, for hitherto they had defind the people by their spells, turning the edges of the executioners' swords. The next evil is the Roman Catholic priests, who bribs the ignorant to become converts and then by the use of baneful drugs they kill them in order to obtain the heart, eyes, and gall of their victim. These deeds escaped detection by the bodies being sown up and swathed in winding-sheets before being put into the coffins. Next comes the bringing of opium into the country to sap the energies and undermine the health of the young and strong, so that the European might overawe with his enperior strength the enervated Chinese. But the worst of the whole thing is that knowing the harm engendered by taking this drug, people do not avoid it because -they lone it! The next evil again is the European evren who tempts the youths of the country. Then comes the steamer Dakin, Cruicka'k & Co which, from the vostness of its size, morders | Dairy Farm Co. ..... might be perpetrated within it, by the throwing | Fenwick & Co., Geo... overboard of the innocent passenger and no one Green Island Cement any the wiser for the deed! The sixth avil is the importation of rifles and cannon for which H. & C. Bakery ..... the wealth of the country is exchanged. The country is strong in its righteousness and love of justice, and by the dootrine of the " Brotherhood of all within the Four Seas" all weapons are useless. Thus, again, the European tries to take away the wenith of China by setting up H. & W. Dock ...... telegraph poles; but in reality it is to apy and map out our country that they have come. They tried to get a footing in Hugan for this purpose; but our people were too clever for them and drove them out the province, and burnt the telegraph poles. To the people, therefore, of Lichou w. owe our thanks for this meritorious The author of the " New Bong" vonches for the truth of his story, and finally concludes by saying that much wisdom and many benefits may be obtained by the payment of a few cash, and exhorts his readers to repeat the tale to their children, "in order that they, too, may avoid the spares of the Europeans and escripe being their victims in the future."-N. IMPERIAL QUARTO. LINGLISH AND CHINESE DIC'.'IONARY. WITH THE PUSTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION.

An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office. Hongkong For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises at 3 P.M., the Company's Steamship for students of a most instructive nature.
